

MARILYN CROCKETT LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The Marilyn Crockett Lifetime Achievement Award is named in honor of the former AOGA Executive Director who dedicated her entire 41-year career to, as she stated, "growing Alaska's economy through a vibrant oil and gas sector in the state." This award seeks to recognize the service contributions of a direct oil & gas industry employee who, like Marilyn, has devoted his/her professional life to fostering the viability of the oil and gas industry in Alaska for the benefit of all Alaskans. This award seeks to honor the dedication Marilyn exemplified during her career: exceptional devotion of time, effort, thought, and action consistently shown in his/her work for the betterment of the oil and gas industry in Alaska.

Selection criteria:

- Employee with at least 15 years of service in the oil and gas industry
- Employee who has made significant and lasting contributions to the oil and gas industry in Alaska
- Employee who has provided direct service to fostering the long-term viability of oil and gas for the benefit of all Alaskans beyond their own organization
- Employee who has served the industry through outstanding contributions to the state and his/her local community

Nominee name:

Nominee company:

Contact telephone number:

Nominator name:

Nominator email:

Nominator telephone number:

Please submit a letter of nomination that provides a description of this person's contribution to the oil and gas industry in Alaska. This letter should include, but is not limited to:

- Provide a brief description of the employee's career.
- Detail the substantial contributions that this employee has made to the oil and gas industry throughout his/her career.
- Describe the ways in which he/she has fostered the long-term viability of the oil and gas industry in Alaska throughout his/her career.
- Provide details as to how this employee contributed to the betterment of his/her state or local community.

Please limit submissions to 500-1,000 words.

Submissions should be sent via email to erkmann@aoga.org by 5:00 p.m. on April 15, 2017.

Applications will be reviewed by a five-person committee, which includes industry experts in the fields of government and public affairs, business, regulatory affairs, legal, and land management. The winner will be announced May 1, 2017.